

Funding to Protect Worker Wages Has Been Slashed under the Bush Administration

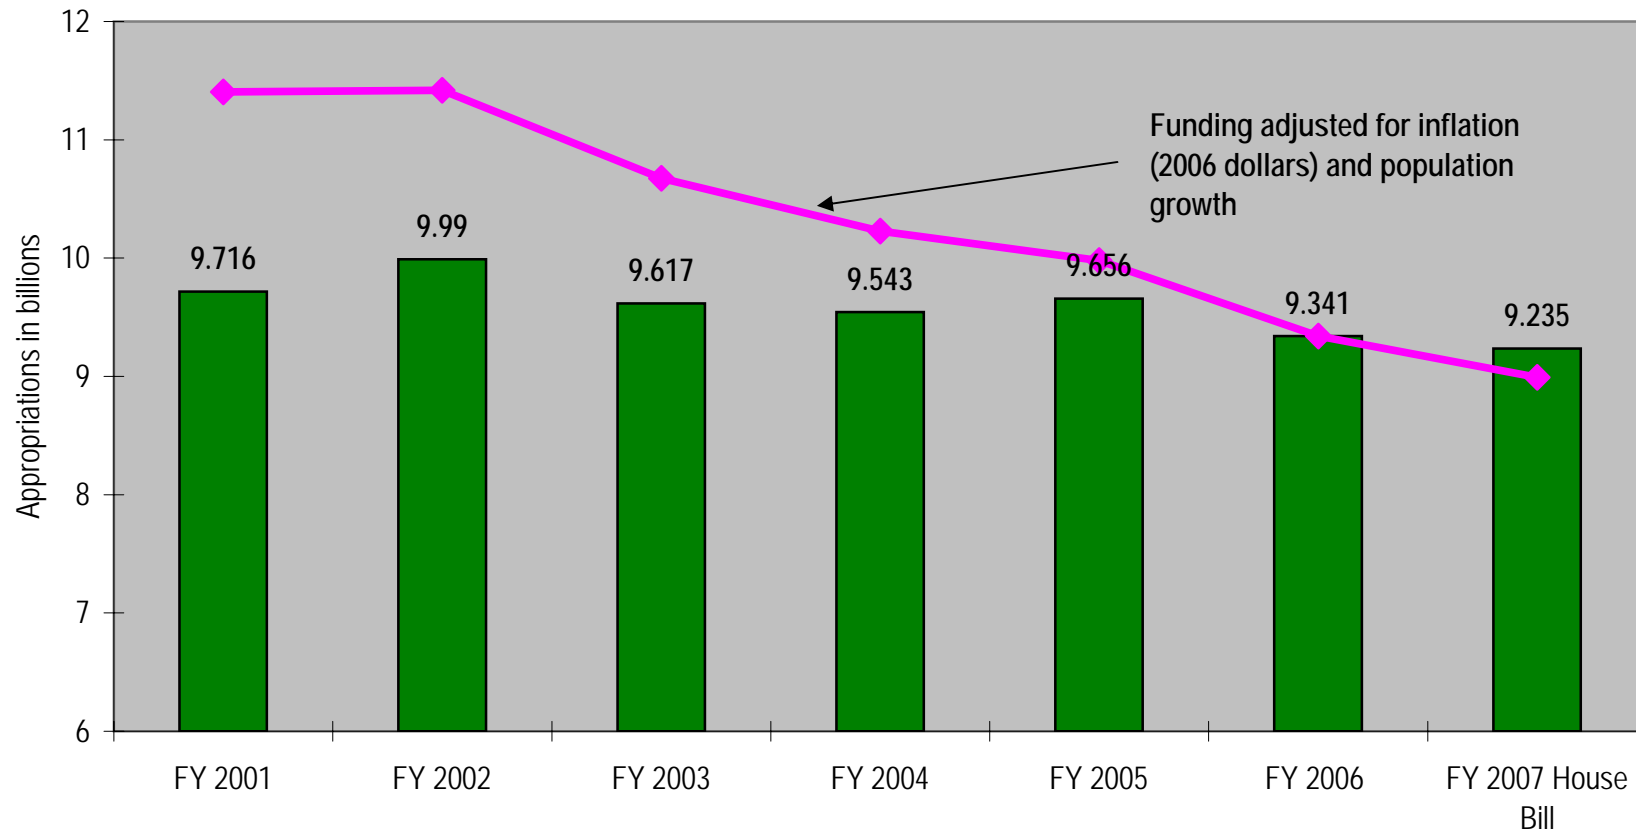

Bureau of International Labor Affairs (ILAB)

1.1 Million More Americans Are Unemployed Than at the Start of the Bush Administration

Funding for Training and Employment Services Has Declined 21 Percent in Real Terms Since FY 2002

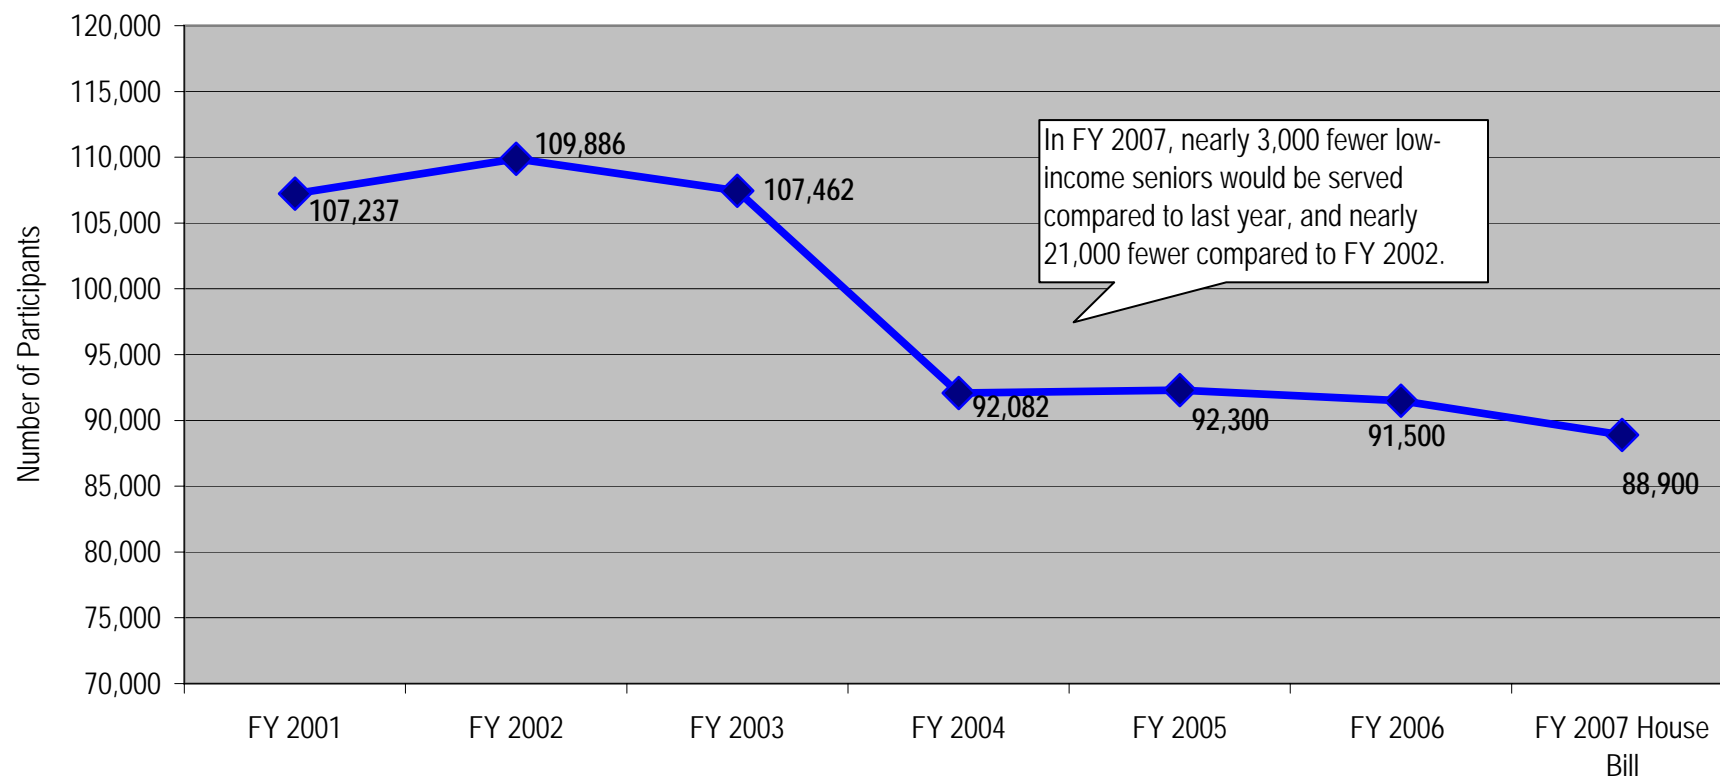

Notes: Discretionary program level for Department of Labor training, employment and unemployment programs. Excludes emergency appropriations for Hurricane Katrina and $325 million rescission in the FY 2007 LHHS bill.

The FY 2007 LHHS Bill Rescinds $325 Million from Workforce Investment Act Funds, Cuts Training Opportunities for Workers

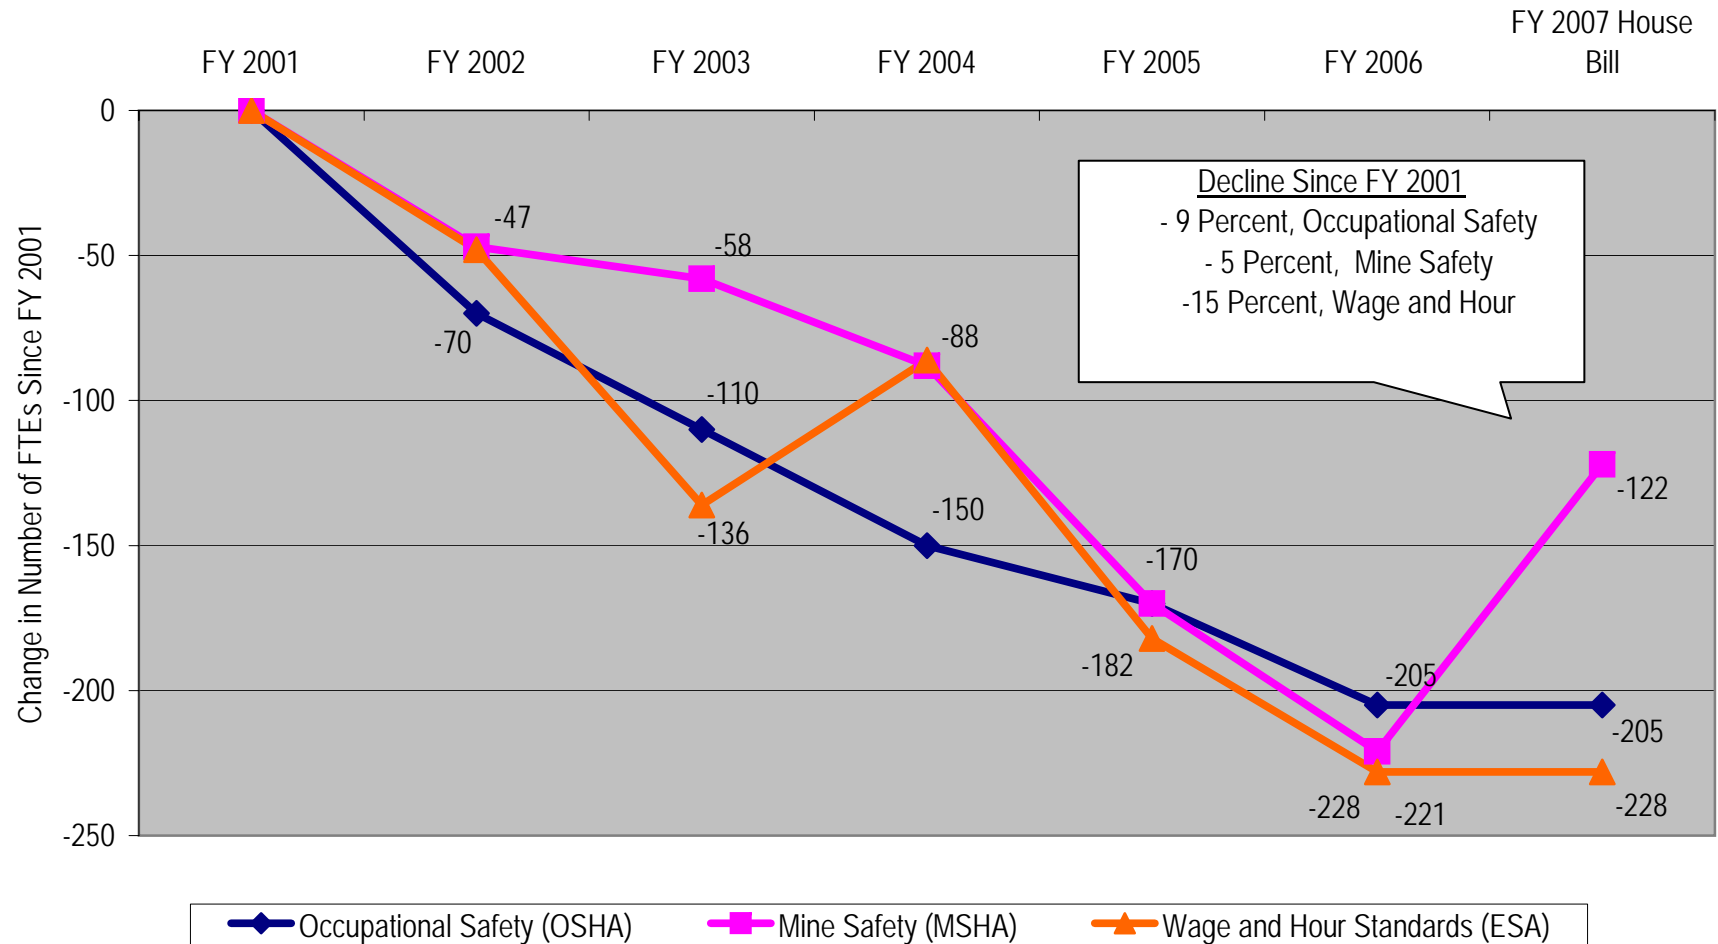

Note: Estimates are based on Labor Department estimates of unexpended carry-in balance for program year 2005 as of June 12, 2006 and cost per participant for each program.

Fewer Low-Income Seniors Benefit From Community Service Employment under Title V of the Older Americans Act

Note: FY 2006 and FY 2007 participant levels are staff estimates. These estimates do not reflect undefined "administrative efficiencies" assumed by the Department of Labor.

Personnel To Enforce Worker Protection Laws Have Declined Under the Bush Administration

Note: MSHA FTE levels reflect the impact of a FY 2006 supplemental appropriation to provide additional inspectors.
